Descrizione

The stylish farmhouse lodge, which has been entirely renovated with sustainable building materials, is situated on the top of a hill offering an extraordinary wide-angle view and surrounded by its farmlands where organic, biological methods are used.

Located only 10 minutes from the coastline with its superb beaches and yet only half an hour's drive from the mountains.

Its strategic position allows one to visit areas with great artistic and historical interest as well as enjoy a wine-and-food tour.

The produce used in our restaurant comes directly from our organic farmlands, such as the cereals for bread, pasta and home-baked cakes, home-grown vegetables, certified wines and the extra virgin olive oil from biologically grown olives.
