Descrizione

Masseria Santa Lucia is an old farm, a part of which dates back to the 15th century when the rooms were once used as stalls, farm storage space and for tobacco processing, and included the farmer's dwelling and those of the farm labourers and their families .A skilful restoration supervised by the owners, Luciana and Danilo, has converted this suggestive building steeped in tradition into guest accommodation. In addition, the six hectares of adjacent farmland have been turned into a park and organic farm. In the farm kitchen, the farm's home produced vegetables, olive oil and fruit, are transformed into culinary delights for guests. The farm is located at the furthest edge of the Salentina peninsula, a few kilometres from a marvellous seacoast and the panoramic Capo di Leuca, in an area covered with centuries-old olive groves, numerous ancient dry stone walls and characteristic rural buildings. Close by, the Santa Cesarea spa offers the chance of a therapeutic moment of well-being, while Gallipoli, Otranto and the historic town centres of other sun-drenched smaller towns and villages of the Salentina area provide interesting visits.
