Descrizione

Relais Riserva di Fizzano, owned by the winery Rocca delle Macie, was born from a careful renovation of an ancient medieval village in Chianti, located in an area rich of vineyards and olive groves. The restructuring has enhanced the existing architectural structure allowing, at the same time, to obtain all the necessary facilities to ensure all our guests the maximum comfort and complete relax. Original terracotta floors, vaulted ceilings or wood, feeding and large fireplaces are just some of the original architectural elements that can be found in the 19 apartments (two-room apartments for 2-4 or 6 people) of the complex, all furnished with simple elegance in full respect of the materials and the style of ancient structures. All apartments are equipped with kitchen facilities, telephone, TV (upon request), hairdryer, bed linen, bath and kitchen. In the village there is also a delightful restaurant with typical Tuscan cuisine, a Bar, a direct sale of farm products (wine, oil, honey and grappa) a chapel, 2 swimming pools, large green spaces and play area for children. We're waiting you!

Altro
